Legal information

The creditors of the debtor and all those who have claims to assets in its possession are requested to file their claims, together with means of evidence (promissory notes, extracts from books, etc.), with the registration office within the specified time limit. Debtors of the bankrupt must report to the registration office within the same time limit; criminal law consequences for omission in accordance with Art. 324 para. 2 of the Swiss Criminal Code (StGB).

Persons who possess objects belonging to the debtor as pledgees or for other reasons are requested to deliver up such objects to the registration office within the same time limit; criminal law consequences for omission in accordance with Art. 324 para. 3 of the Swiss Criminal Code (StGB).

The preferential right elapses if those concerned unjustifiably omit to report. The registration office indicated below is also competent for persons domiciled abroad.

Publication pursuant to Art. 231 and 232 SchKG and Art. 29 and 123 of the Ordinance of the Federal Supreme Court on the Forced Sale of Real Estate (VZG).

Pursuant to Art. 232 para. 2 no. 6 SchKG, the Bankruptcy Office is the place of service for all persons who are domiciled abroad, unless they designate another place of service in Switzerland.

Accordingly, the creditors domiciled abroad who have not designated a place of service in Switzerland will not receive any circulars for the purpose of passing resolutions. Those will only be informed by e-mail as to when the circulars can be viewed on www.envion-konkurs.ch for information purposes. Legally binding and decisive for the start of the period run is the delivery of the circulars to the Bankruptcy Office as the place of service.

Time limit: 1 month

Expiry of the time limit: 28 November 2019

Creditors who want to file claims arising from EVN-Tokens or their acquisition must use the portal developed for this purpose and submit their tokens to the bankruptcy administration via this portal. The portal is accessed via the website www.envion-konkurs.ch.

All other creditors are requested to file their claims using the corresponding form also available on the website www.envion-konkurs.ch.
